The President's Plane Talk

The BIG three events are coming up ...

1. Friday, November 9: our yearly donation tool and junk auction;
2. Wednesday, December 12: "The Gathering" at our NEW location (see details inside);
3. Saturday-Sunday, January 19-20: Tool Show at The Showplace.

With all this tool time coming your way, let's get involved and mark your calendars. First up, our November 9th bi-monthly meeting featuring several things: Our famous "Donation Auction" – a time to clean out your old tools and other shop-related items, or any item you wish to donate. Who knows what will show up? This donation auction offsets our club cost for mailing and meeting place rents. Next, I have received several nice tools from a D.C. collection featuring mostly braces and boring tools. These tools will be auctioned separately. Also, we have our own tool club auction, where you get 100% of the sale price. Please have tools that value $15 or more for this auction. YES, 3 tool auctions on Friday night, November 9th at Pocahontas Middle School. Bring money to buy, and tools to sell at the tables or auction or donate. The theme for the night is "craftsman-made tools". These are tools made by your hands or hands of others, and could be tools used in any trade, made by blacksmiths, woodworkers, and machinists. Let's break down how these tools were made, how long they took to make, why did someone make it instead of buying it?

So, lots going on that night and it should be fun. We should have a big crowd and bring a tool friend with you. Also, pay your 2013 dues – still only $10.00! Almost forgot: Bob Ziegler has the Christmas ornaments made: A BRACE – totally neat. Stop by the bank or bring your check book!

Bill Taggart will tell us about our new "Gathering Place" - very nice! RATS are moving into to high rent district! Don't worry – same cost as the old Legion Hall, but 100 times nicer. The Gathering will be on Wednesday, December 12th. We will have our tool auction, fine pot luck dinner, great desserts and tool fellowship with families. Mark your calendar.

Finally, The Tool Show at The Showplace is on January 19th & 20th, 2013. We need dealers! Contracts will be coming out soon. Also, we'll need folks to do demonstrations at our RATS table and help recruit new members to join our great club.

Plane and Simple,
Rick Long – see you Friday, Nov. 9th
